American Primary Aluminum Association Applauds President Trump's Announcement of a 50% Tariff on All Foreign Aluminum Imports

Washington, DC; May 31, 2025 – The American Primary Aluminum Association (APAA), today applauds President Donald J. Trump for taking strong and decisive action to raise the tariff rate on foreign aluminum imports from 25% to 50%. The tariff will come into effect on Wednesday 4th June.

“We applaud President Trump’s historic announcement that he will impose a 50% tariff to stop the flood of foreign aluminum imports,” remarked Mark Duffy, President of the APAA. “For decades, subsidized foreign producers have hollowed out domestic aluminum manufacturing. Under President Donald J. Trump, we finally have a strong leader who is fighting to rebuild domestic manufacturing and protect thousands of American aluminum jobs.”
